

Safety Notices

- Piccante Worktops/Waterstops/Windowsills do not pose any danger for the living creatures if used properly. These products do not contain more than 0,1% of SVHC ingredients.
- Be careful during transportation – it is recommended to carry the products horizontally by at least 2 people to ensure stability and prevent harming people carrying it.
- Take extreme care if using sharp implements when removing packaging to avoid damaging the product or causing injury.
- If you decide to use power tools, at first become familiar with their setting operation, also it is recommended to practice cutting on some similar type of material before the proper phase.
- Leave 50mm gap between worktop/waterstop/windowsill and the heat-emitting source.
- If you decide to use some sealer/adhesive to adjust/install the product, please read its instruction first to ensure your safety.
- While cutting using power/manual tools use appropriate personal protective equipment.
- Always have good ventilation when using adhesives and cutting the product, also wear protect mask against humes and wooden dust.